EMMY VIEWING PARTY, SEPTEMBER 22,
LOS ANGELES

PGA members gathered at Jalapeño Pete's in Studio City to celebrate the broadcast of the 71st Primetime Emmy Awards. Attendees dressed in festive attire and enjoyed appetizers and cocktails while watching the show.

In addition to networking with their fellow members, attendees were encouraged to bring PGA-eligible guests interested in joining the Guild. The guests had an opportunity to learn more about the many benefits of being a PGA member and received a special discount code for 50% off the cost of their application fee.

The Emmy Viewing and Recruitment Party was hosted by the PGA West Events Committee. The volunteer event organizers included Alesia Glidewell, Ian Wagner, Stacy Ekstein and Michelle Romano, as well as Event Committee Chairs Karen Covell and Joe Morabito.
